Committee Reports and Events

- Membership Committee—No report
- Fundraiser Committee—Committee members came with bags of rubber ducks for the Sept. 30 duck race in Salt Creek. BWC members will be helping the Brookfield Recreation Department by selling $5 chances to win the race which will take place during the Brookfield Field Arts Festival in Kiwanis Park. Proceeds of the race will help fund recreation department programs for community members in need. For another fundraising event, Priscilla spoke about Girl's Night In, a fun activity involving wine tasting and facials. Proceeds will go to assistance for veterans. Also, save the date for the annual Bunco Fundraiser, which will be Sunday, November 12.
- Social Committee—Committee members suggested getting together Friday, August 18, for one of the concerts in Kiwanis Park.
- Location Committee—No report

General Business & Upcoming Events

- Guest speaker Hayley talked about the need for volunteers for the Children's Community Closet. This organization collects gently used children's clothing and makes it available to the public once a month at St. Michael's Lutheran Church in Lagrange Park. Volunteers are needed to sort the clothing, as well as set up and take down the monthly events.
- Reminder that BWC members are needed to volunteer at the Share Love Share Food pantry on Tuesday, August 22.
- Once again, BWC members will put together the Youth Entrepreneur Market. It is scheduled for Sunday, November 4, at the Compassion Factory.
