Committee Reports and Events

- Membership Committee—Committee members were proud to announce the creation of two banners to attract new members. One banner is displayed at a Brookfield Little League baseball diamond in Kiwanis Park and the other is at a Brookfield Babe Ruth Conference baseball diamond at Elhert Park.
- Fundraiser Committee— Committee members revealed they raised $815 for the Share Food Share Love food pantry through the yoga fundraiser held in May at Yoga by Degrees in Western Springs.
- Social Committee—Committee members promoted a social event for June 22 at Pub 78 to support a member's (Sarah Heer) son who was performing. Members were also considering a get-together at one of the Friday night Concerts in the Park or one of the Music on Grand events the last Saturday of the month from June-through September.
- Location Committee—Committee members shared locations for summer meeting places including Ryan's Pub and Blue Water Martini Bar.

General Business & Upcoming Events

- Two guest speakers talked about the upcoming (September 30) Brookfield Fine Arts Festival. The event will feature local artists displaying and selling their wares, a community mural, live music, and an origami crane display. Volunteers are needed for the event.
- BWC members were encouraged to sign up for one of four volunteer shifts in the Intelligentsia Cycle Brookfield Criterium to be held July 26.
- Everyone enjoyed baked treats from member Paige, who has a Sweets and Meats business.
