Committee Reports and Events

- Vice President Joette Kompare spoke about the four committees (fundraiser, location, membership, social) and the women heading up each.

General Business

- Under charitable events, members will be getting together for brunch at The Little Owl to make cards for residents of Cantata Adult Life Services on Sunday, April 10. Several ideas are in the works to assist residents of Constance Morris House, such as a Mother's Day Brunch on Sunday, May 8 and ongoing volunteer work to provide meals and organize the organization's linen closet.
- As a memorial gesture to honor former member Jenn Jani, members approved donating $192 to Amelia Jani to redecorate her room.
- Under social events, a craft activity to make jewelry at the Brookfield Public Library's Maker Studio on Wednesday, May 4 is tentatively planned.
- Under community events, members discussed ideas for a revamped Witches Night Out such as opening it up to families or to couples instead of just women to guarantee higher attendance.
- Members also discussed possible days for the annual bunco fundraiser on a Sunday in November.
